Last Wednesday, 22nd February, Marina d'Or Holiday Resort opened its new office in Seville.

This is the first time the company has opened an office in Andalusia. The new offices are at No 16, Avenida de la Constitución, Seville – right in the heart of the capital of Andalusia.

TV personality Anne Igartiburu acted as Master of Ceremonies. She arrived in a magnificent traditional horse-drawn carriage, accompanied by the Marina d'Or Group's Chief Executive, Jesús Ger. The coach had been lent for the occasion by famous mounted bullfighter Rafael Peralta.

At 8.30pm, the cutting of the ribbon marked the beginning of the event. This was followed by cocktails served in the new office. Among those attending were well-known personalities from the city's political and social worlds and around 600 guests, including members of Andalusia's Autonomous Regional Government and popular celebrities like Rafael Peralta and the singer 'Chiquitete,' to name but a few.

Anne Igartiburu's personal charm and pleasant and helpful manner were in constant evidence throughout the evening as she dealt with the media in her usual warm and friendly way. She said she was proud to be fronting Marina d'Or's advertising campaigns, as she considers that the company offers a quality product, and that her involvement has helped her grow as a professional, as well as enabling her to enjoy Marina d'Or's magnificent facilities.

Marina d'Or will be opening another new office in Andalusia, this time in Cordoba, at the end of March, to be followed by an office in Malaga - the aim being to gradually establish a presence all over this region of Spain, where the company already has a huge number of customers and friends.
